

Highfield Level (3) International Award in Delivering Training

Who is Highfield Level 3 International Award in Delivering Training for?

This qualification is designed for individuals seeking to become effective trainers in various environments, including corporate, educational, and vocational settings. It is ideal for those who wish to enhance their training skills and deliver impactful learning experiences.

What will they get out of it?

Participants will develop the knowledge and skills necessary to design, deliver, and evaluate training sessions. The course prepares learners to engage participants, facilitate learning, and assess training outcomes, ensuring a high-quality training experience.

What is Highfield Level 3 International Award in Delivering Training covers?

- Principles and Foundations of Training
- Design and Development of Training Curricula
- Various Training Techniques and Methods
- Managing Training Sessions and Interacting with Trainees
- Evaluating Training Effectiveness and Providing Feedback